Create an elements table to record all of the assets gathered from other sources

You cannot gather assets until you have produced detailed designs and recieved feed back on them

Gathering assets

The table should contain details of sources for all assets and design ideas from primary and secondary sources, not just images save in e-portfolio and keep up- to date throughout the project